PROBE INTO SECURITY LEAGUE CONTINUES

COMMITTEE TO EXAMINE BOOKS.

Carnegie Corporation and Rockefeller Large Contributors to League's Funds.

Washington, Dec. 20.—The congressional investigation of the activities of the National Security League will soon be carried to New York City, Representative Ben Johnson, democrat of Kentucky, chairman of the special house committee appointed to conduct the probe, announced today.

The committee will visit the national headquarters of the league in New York and examine the league's books for information regarding its receipts and expenditures in the campaign it conducted against members of congress who refused to support legislation favored by it.

Col. Charles E. Lydecker, of New York City, president of the league, who resumed his testimony before the committee today, explained that it would require considerable time and trouble to bring all of the league's books and papers to Washington.

"We possess several tens of them," Lydecker explained. He could not recall the names of all the big contributors to the league's fund, but he said that the $100,000 received by it from the Carnegie corporation and the $25,000 from John D. Rockefeller Sr. were the largest contributions it had received.

Receipts, $57,525.55; disbursements, $10,823.73; consisting of salaries, printing, etc., $4,529.05, and postage, $5,995.63.

Col. Lydecker testified yesterday that the receipts and expenditures of the league for its educational work, of which the congressional probe is an integral part, were between Sept. 1, 1917, and Aug. 31, 1918, $284,358.18.

Who contributed this money and how it was expended was one reason the investigating committee is going to the league's headquarters in New York City.

A chart circulated by the league during this year's campaign in every section to convince the voters that Lydecker said, as to which congressional man voted "right" and which voted "wrong" on war measures, favored by the league, was submitted to the committee.

The eight measures used by the league's congressional committee in the compilation of the chart, Lydecker said, were:

"No. 1—McElmore resolution, March 7, 1918. This resolution, passed to the effect that American citizens should forego their natural, legal and constitutional rights to travel on the high seas.

"No. 2—Kahn amendment to the Hay army bill; March 23, 1918. This amendment sought to increase the regular army to 178,000, or more nearly approaching the recommendations of the general staff.

"No. 3—Brandegee resolution in the Hay-Chamberlain army bill; April 18, 1918. This provided for an army of 250,000 as against 140,000.

"No. 4—Section '56', providing for a volunteer reserve army wholly under federal control, April 18, 1918.

"No. 5—Motion to recommit naval appropriation bill; June 2, 1918. This motion was designed to increase in the navy beyond what was provided in the original bill.

"No. 6—Cooper amendment; March 1, 1917. Designed to prohibit to American ships their legal rights to carry arms or ammunition in their cargoes.

"No. 7—Declaration of war against Germany; April 6, 1917.

"No. 8—Kahn amendment to conscription act; April 23, 1917. This provided for raising by conscription of the necessary army to give effect to the declaration of war."

Those senators and representatives who opposed or did not vote for these measures the league had on record for re-election. Lydecker explained. He denied, when questioned by Senator-elect Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, a member of the committee, that munition-making interests or other corporate interests, interested in the manufacture of munitions, were behind the leagues.

DONT WORRY, GIRLS!

Colorado Lieutenant Back From France, Reassuring.

Denver, Col.—(I. N. S.)—Don't worry, girls! It's all right on the word of a lieutenant who has just come back from over there. American boys prefer their own sweethearts to French maidens, no matter how "chic" the daughters of France, no matter how they roll their be-yoo-tiful eyes.

The man who has removed a haunting fear from feminine America, who with one assertion has dispelled the nightmare of the "chic" French girls, is Lieut. W. A. Collins, of the 117th infantry, of Denver, lately returned from the front.

"American boys prefer French girls!" "Bunk!" declares Lieut. Weinberger vigorously. In the first place the fighting man hasn't got the time to spend in idle flirtations. In the second place the

After several applications the hair stops coming out and you can't find any dandruff.—(Adv.)

BRYCE EXPRESSES HOPE

America Will Aid Development of Armenia.

London, Dec. 19.—Viscount Bryce, former British ambassador to the United States who, for years, has taken an active interest in the Armenian question, said to the Associated Press today:

"English friends of America trust that American public opinion, recognizing the sufferings long endured by the Armenian people, its fidelity to the Christian faith and the splendid services rendered by its soldiers in the war, will heartily support Armenia's claim to complete deliverance from Turkish rule and its own national independence. By its industry, intelligence and education, Armenia is well fitted for freedom and capable of restoring prosperity to its ancient home. We hope that American opinion will also favorably consider the suggestion that America should render temporary aid to the establishment of order in and the development of Armenia."

CHARGED WITH SHOOTING

Dan Price Alleged to Have Shot at Howard Bell.

Dan Price, a negro, was arrested this morning on a charge of shooting with intent to kill Howard Bell, another negro. Price, who was drinking heavily, was found with Bell on Third street, near the city hall, and a fight started. When the men were clinched, Bell shot and killed Price. After he shot, Bell held on to him and by the time police arrived, he had taken the pistol from Price and was giving him a good beating. Price was up before Judge Fleming this morning and the judge advised that the trial be put off until Saturday morning so that the defendant could be in better shape to tell his story.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 20.—"Handsome Bill" Cook, convicted of a verbal attempt to blackmail Atlanta's multimillionaire mayor, Asa G. Candler, and under sentence of twelve months on the chain-gang, who was out on bond, pending an appeal, has disappeared. Look, Mother! Is tongue coated, breath feverish and stomach sour?

Cleanse the little liver and bowels and they get well quickly.

When your child suffers from a cold don't wait; give the little stomach, liver and bowels a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or thirst naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

If your child coughs, snuffles and has caught cold or is feverish or has a sore throat give a good dose of "California Syrup of Figs" to evacuate the bowels no difference what other treatment is given.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given today saves a sick child tomorrow.
